NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

AT Creech's.

I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMEROUS friends and patrons, with a house full of Goods and still they come.

Why, just look, the streets filled with Boys all loaded with new Goods.

FOR CREECH'S.

Just received, 51 CASES OF DRY GOODS, containing a large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and when you think of new styles and speak of Goods at the right prices, why, bear in mind that they are here and now opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

CALICOES, CALICOES.

I will sell you Calicoes at 8 cts a per yard; want you look at them at 10 cents? and cash you afford to buy them at 12½.

Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.

Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? You that do not know it, come and look at them and to you that do know, come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the pennies. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, or why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves?

There the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed along
The listening winds received the song.

COME to CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.

Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why I will sell them to you for $2.00! Do you want them cheaper? same quality, Cant find them! Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them. 5, 7, 8, 10, 12, 15, 20, 25 and 30 dollars; do you want them finer still? Just say so, and I am the man to order them.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots are wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's and buy a new pair. They look better and fit better, any way they keep your feet dry and preserve your health.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

Ladies' and Misses' trimmed and untrimmed Bonnets; Would you not do well to spare a few moments and come and look at them?

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received for the last 20 years, for such, and I hope by strict attention to business, representing goods as they are and in every instance giving you the worth of your money, to continue to share a liberal portion of your patronage.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR
JAMES H. MOORE, Assistant and Local Editor.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1870.

THE LEGISLATURE—IMPEACHMENT.

The Old North State of the 25th inst. has an article on this subject based on the memorial of J. A. Moore, of Alamance, for the impeachment of Gov. Holden and Chief Justice Pearson. The editor takes a calm and deliberate view of the subject, but, we think, a very incorrect one. We do not agree with him in his premises nor conclusions, for the following among other reasons.

After quoting considerably from the memorial of Mr. Moore, and giving entire the concluding paragraphs, the editor says:

"From the above it will be seen that the ground relied upon for the impeachment of the Chief Justice consists only in "acts of omission." It is not charged that he has actually committed any act for which justice and the laws of the State demand that he should be impeached. No one has attempted to show that he did not lay down the law correctly in his opinion in the case of A. G. Moore ex parte. The only charge that can be sustained against him is that he "omitted" to issue a writ to a Sheriff and order a posse to be summoned to compel obedience to the mandate of his writ. But is "omitting" to do so did he act "corruptly"? We do not believe that he did, and if he did not then there is no ground for his impeachment. The idea that a venerable Judge, who has occupied a seat on the bench for thirty years with credit to himself, should be impeached and deposed for an error in judgment—a mistake—is perfectly monstrous. Let such a precedent be established and but few honest and capable men would be willing to hazard their reputation by going upon the bench in times of high party excitement."

Has it never occurred to the mind of the editor of the Old North State, that the omission to perform a sacred and sworn duty may amount to a high crime? When the lives and liberties of the people are imperiled, they have a remedy to which they may appeal—the great writ of habeas corpus—and the very instrument and power which give this remedy, provides the agents whose duty it is to apply that remedy and give it effect. If that agent fails of his duty, while the subject suffers wrong, is not the omission of that agent as much a crime as the infliction of the wrong?

As a community of freemen we are united under a solemn compact for the mutual protection of each other—that compact is contained in the constitution. In that compact are restrictions and duties laid upon all, and he who breaks the compact by the neglect of a duty, to the injury of others, is as culpable as he who disregards a restriction to the injury of others.

But the editor does not "believe" the Chief Justice acted "corruptly" when he failed to discharge a plain and sworn duty. All that is urged about his "occupying a seat on the Bench for thirty years," is but an augmentation of the crime of "omission" of duty, and takes away also the force of the plea of his action being the result of a simple "mistake." All these palliations are counterbalanced by the suggestion of long experience; by his conduct on former occasions, and by his actions and apparent animus in the habeas corpus affair. The editor does not "believe" the Judge acted corruptly: Many who had better chances of forming an opinion, and who witnessed his course throughout what were termed "the Ku Klux investigations," especially on that memorable Thursday—the last day he presided in the examinations, think—were forced to think—that the actions of the Chief Justice were prompted by something worse than a "mistake." It was too gross a mistake for a learned Judge "who has occupied a seat on the bench for thirty years," to make.

In further palliation of the Chief Justice's criminal conduct, the editor of the Old North State alludes to the circumstances surrounding the habeas corpus cases—"the Governor had directed Kirk not to obey the writ, and assumed the responsibility" &c. He also alludes to the probability, as has been done by other apologists of the Chief Justice, that an attempt to discharge his duty would, probably, have resulted in a collision between Holden's armed ruffians and the lawful posse of the State.

We do not concede that the Governor could "assume the responsibility" rightfully, and if not, the Chief Justice could not, in the discharge of his sworn duty, regard his assumption at all. Besides, all that is said about the apprehensions of the Chief Justice of a collision, is the most puerile bosh. There can be no conflict of authority between the co-ordinate branches of the government, so long as each keeps itself in its constitutional sphere and performs its constitutional duties in a lawful manner.—But when one branch overleaps its bounds and thereby inflicts a deep wrong on individuals or the commonwealth, there is certainly the greater reason for the other branches to exert all their lawful power to restrain it and to protect the people and the State against the attempted usurpation and wrong; and not shrink from the discharge of a sworn duty under the childish excuse, "I'm afraid!"

But we will not pursue the subject further to-day. It is notorious that great wrongs—crimes—have been perpetrated on free citizens of North Carolina. The Governor has transcended the power given him by the Constitution—has oppressed and outraged citizens; set aside the Constitution which declares that the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended. The Chief Justice, whose duty it was to give the injured the redress the Constitution guarantees them, failed of this duty; and not only so, but as the Governor declared and the Chief Justice did not deny, he "virtually sustained" the Governor in his course in defying the law, in overriding the Constitution and outraging the free citizens of the State.

The crime has been committed—the perpetrators are known—the remedy is plain. Shall those who thus dare break through all constitutional restraint, set up their own will as law, arrest, imprison and hang their fellow-citizens for the accomplishment of party ends or private revenge, go unpunished, and the precedent go down to posterity for the imitation of future traitor Governors and corrupt or imbecile Judges!

We agree with, and adopt the language of, the Old North State when he says:

"Impeach and depose the criminally guilty, if the good of the State demands it, without stopping to inquire how it will affect political parties. The doctrine recently advanced by some, that the Conservatives in the Legislature should not impeach Gov. Holden because it might redound to the good of the Republican party, by placing a better man at the head of it, and of the State Government, is only worthy to have emanated from the minds of professional and trading politicians, and deserves the indignant scorn of all high-minded and honorable men. Whenever the grave questions that can be brought before the House of Representatives, or effect the welfare of the people of the State, are to be determined by such considerations, without an indignant protest, political and public virtue will have fled the country, and the people of the State be fit objects to become slaves."

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.

We publish in another column, the proceedings of a meeting composed of citizens of Granville and Wake county, held at Laws's, on the 24th inst., calling for the impeachment of Holden and Pearson.

We have yet to meet the first person outside of the Radical party, who is opposed to the impeachment of these two culprits; and if the Legislature is not for it, the members are far behind the people.

It is a little singular that the names, LALAITER and GRISSOM should appear in proceedings of a meeting recommending the impeachment of the Governor. We do not know what relation Mr. J. B. Lassiter sustains to the Kildee Senator of Granville; but Arthur Grissom, we know, is a brother of Dr. Eugene Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum. But Mr. Arthur Grissom is a very distant relation to the Doctor in politics.

After the Senatorial election is over on Tuesday, we shall look for the Legislature to begin to consider the subject of impeachment. The people are expectant on this subject, and we do not think the Legislature will disregard their demands in the matter.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Graham: Resolution declaring a vacancy in the 24th Senatorial District, (Caswell county) and authorizing the Governor to issue his proclamation for an election to be held in said District.

Mr. Graham said it was unnecessary he thought, to say anything in support of the resolution. The Senate and the people of the State were already familiar with the transactions of Kirk's State Troops in the county of Caswell during the election held on the 4th of August last and they were convinced that no legal, or free election was held in that county. It was such a farce the people of the county ridiculed the idea of talking seriously of calling it an election and the Senator who claimed to be elected had not even made his appearance in the Senate Chamber. In fact, the Sheriff of the county had never issued any certificate of election and would not. Commissioners refused to count the votes and they were ordered to do so by Kirk, and signed their report commissioned by Kirk, he thought the resolution should be acted on at once.

Mr. Olds said he disagreed with the Senator from Orange as to immediate action. Thought the party interested should have more time to collect evidence. He had been informed that the Senator had gone to Caswell to try and ascertain why the Sheriff had failed to issue the certificate and he presumed he must return soon with his certificate, and moved to postpone the further consideration of the question until the 1st Monday in December.

Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, said he did not see the necessity of postponing action on the resolution to another day, he thought the Senate was just as competent to act at once, and to act as intelligently as if the Senator himself were present, his being present could not throw any additional light upon the subject. It was a fixed fact that troops were at the polls on the day of election. Let us take our fathers construction as to what constitutes a fair election, they would not even allow a cornstalk militia to muster near an election ground on election day. Caswell county was under military rule, consequently the election could not have been free. The absence of the Senator could not change the question. He thought it was a clear case, and he desired the Senate to act at once and to inaugurate the movement with such a spirit as to fix it permanently in the minds of the American people that armed men, yea, even cornstalk militia, will not be tolerated at the polls on election day, but that all elections shall be free and untrameled.

Mr. Warren said he saw no necessity or propriety for postponement, and in order to discuss the subject, moved to indefinitely postpone the resolution as a motion to postpone to a fixed time, cut off debate. He presumed that since the discussion several days ago on a similar question that Senators had fully considered the question and were ready to act. He was of the opinion that the Senate had the right to declare a vacancy, and it was their duty to declare a vacancy at once. A party hunting up a certificate from Caswell county in order to make his appearance in the Senate would not influence him, even if he should succeed in getting here; he would meet him at the threshold of the Senate, and he could not take his seat by his consent. In fact a military force was sent to the County of Caswell, and were at the polls on election day, and the leading purpose of that act was to overawe and intimidate so as to interfere with the election. The Constitution says all elections must be free beyond a doubt, the election in Caswell could not have been free. If every man in the county had voted, on grounds of right and of high public policy, it is the duty of the General Assembly to declare that there was no election, and the sooner the better.

Mr. Robbins of Davidson said it appeared to him that the chief point in the case was, whether the people of Caswell were denied by military occupation the privilege of a free election. It was not that the County was in a state of insurrection, for that he denied and also the authority of the Governor to declare it so. Nor was the question whether some individual is here or may come here claiming to be a Senator from that District. But the question was simply, was there a free election in said County. That there was not, was a matter of public history, of which it seemed to him no Senator could entertain a doubt, it was a dark and indelible page of history, upon which he was prepared to take action, promptly and firmly and he therefore hoped the resolution would be acted upon at once and passed.

The discussion was continued at much length but our space will not allow us to publish more. We shall, therefore, simply name the parties who participated, and their positions. [Reporter.

Messrs. Jones, Gilmer, Dargan, Speed, Flemming, McClammy, Allen and Worth, followed in able arguments in support of the resolution and for immediate action thereupon.

Messrs. Moore, Lehman and Olds, spoke in opposition to the resolution, and urged the postponement of the resolution to the 1st of December next.

Mr. Warren withdrew his motion to indefinitely postpone, as he had before stated that his object in making the motion was to allow a full discussion of the subject.—His motion to indefinitely postpone took precedence of the motion made by Mr. Olds to postpone to the 1st of December next.

The question recurring on the motion of Mr. Olds to postpone to the 1st of December next. It was lost by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Adams, Allen, Albright, Bellamy, Battle, Currie, Cowles, Crowell, Cook, Council, Dargan, Fleming, Graham, Gilmer, Jones, Latham, Ledbetter, Lenney, Love, McClammy, Murphy, Morehead, Mauney, Merrimon, Norment, Robbins, of Rowan, Robbins, of Davidson, Speed, Skinner, Troy, Warren, Worth, Whitesides.—30.

EXAMPLE, BETTER THAN PRECEPT, AND TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

THE subscriber has been interrogated within the last few days by a very considerable number of persons in reference to the fact as to whether our lately departed fellow citizen, the Rev. Wm. E. Pell was or was not insured in the Ætna Company. And now my reply is given in this public way for the information of all those who may feel a true and personal interest in the temporal comfort and prosperity of those he so nobly and faithfully represented while living. He was one among many of the first who took policies in this Company in 1868. His example in Church and State are worthy of the highest Commendation and emulation by every one. He sought first his personal salvation, and then used all legitimate means to provide for those he loved best. He insured in the Ætna Company or $10,000 about the time that Gov. Worth took $5,000, R. Andrews $10,000, J. A. Moore $15,000, A. Kline 5,000, and many others who might be named. "He who provides not for his own and especially for those of his own house will find what he is compared to in Holy writ, a word to the wise is sufficient, and in conclusion we say be advised while in health to follow the example of our friend. And if the Ætna Company after having paid already $182,000 to the widows and orphans of the State is not approved of and worthy of your confidence, we will say heare in the next beat you can find.

SOMETIME since an announcement extraordinary was made by the SENTINEL, man, that he knew of twelve orders having been given our Milliners in one day for Bridal Bonnets, and expressed some surprise at the number &c.

Our friend Moore was not in the secret. I propose now to tell him and every body else, that it was not surprising at all.

Every one of these happy Bridegrooms were patrons of Pink C. Hardie, and purchased their Cigars and Tobacco of him, which imparted a fragrance to the breath which was perfectly irresistable. Sozodont is no where.

Every body knows what a horrible scent is imparted by a horrible Cigar or Chew, "such as I dont keep" and no one discovers it sooner than the ladies.

Now a word to all who contemplate matrimony. Be wise in time and give no occasion for your rejection by purchasing your Cigars and Tobacco from

PINK C. HARDIE.

To the members of the Legislature, strangers and citizens I would say, that my stock of Cigars, Tobacco and Smokers goods generally is complete. Come and see me, and I will guarantee I will suit you in quality and price.

THE SPECIAL ELECTION.—At the present writing, (Saturday night 9 o'clock,) we have received very meager reports of the special election in the 4th Congressional district, and of Wake county, not enough to form an opinion from as to the result.

At the Raleigh box, Holden received 1,380 votes, Manning 719; aggregate, 2,099, Holden's majority 661. Last August, between Hawkins and Gilliam, the aggregate was 2,153, Hawkin's majority 713—Conservative gain at the Raleigh box, over August election of 52.

We have nothing definite from the other precincts, but the probability is that Mr. Manning is elected to Congress, and that Dr. Dunn is beaten by Mr. Phillips for the Legislature in this county. Should we receive further reports before going to press we will give them in a postscript.

We learn by a telegram from Weldon that Goodwin's majority in that county is about 600; the Radical majority in that county has been heretofore, we believe, about 2,000.

LATER.

JOHNSTON COUNTY.—A gentleman just from this county, informs us that Manning's majority in the county is between seven and eight hundred.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.—A dispatch from Franklinton states that the Conservatives have gained in the county, and that it will require the official count to decide which way the county has gone.

NASH COUNTY.—Three precints in this county, the Conservatives gain fifty votes.

LISA WEBER'S BLONDE TROUPE.—The above celebrated Company of Musical Burlesque Artists will appear at Tucker Hall Monday and Tuesday evenings, Nov. 28th and 29th inst. Of the merits of this organization the Richmond Enquirer speaks as follows: "There was a pretty full audience in attendance last night to welcome Lisa Weber and her troupe of British Blondes; the performance was a burlesque of Ensni, and it was very amusing. We esteem this the best operatic burlesque troupe we have ever seen, not excepting the famous Lydia Thompson blonde burlesquers, indeed several members of Miss Weber's Company were formerly professionally associated with Miss Thompson. In beauty of face, symmetry of figure and graceful abandon, the women of this Company are irresistibly facinating. Miss Weber and Miss Howitt have the best voices, and sing with artistic exactness. In Mr. Atkins we recognize an old acquaintance of the Black Crook memory. He is a most excellent low comedian, exhibiting wonderful physical agility, possessing remarkable facial mobility, and imperiously funny in all his performances. Mr. Ketchum is also a fine actor, his very look conveys with it the contagion of laughter. Miss Maud Hamilton formerly of the Chapman's is, we understand, whith Miss Weber. She is a valuable acquisition. Miss Weber's troupe, we must add in conclusion, are highly artistic in the true sense of the word, and fully worthy the support of our amusement loving public."

So says the Enquirer. We know nothing of the matter.

THE LITTLE CORPORAL MAGAZINE for December closes the eleventh volume of that brilliant juvenile. The magazine has now been published five years and a half, and has attained an unprecedented popularity and circulation. It is now enlarged, improved, and beautifully illustrated. The November and December numbers of 1870 are offered free to all who subscribe now for the next year. Don't fail to give you children this sterling juvenile magazine. It is published in Chicago, Illinois, by Sewell & Miller, at one dollar and a half a year, 15 cents for a single copy. Beautiful and generous premiums are given for clubs.

COUGHS AND COLDS ARE OFTEN OVERLOOKED.—A continuance for any length of time causes irritation of the Lungs, or some chronic Throat Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" are offered with the fullest confidence in their efficacy, giving almost invariably sure and immediate relief.

Owing to the good reputation and popularity of the Troches, many worthless and cheap imitations are offered, which are good for nothing. Be sure to OBTAIN the true "Brown's Bronchial Troches." Sold everywhere.

Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo N. Y., and get a pamphlet on Catarrh free, or send sixty cents and get Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. $500 reward is offered by the proprietor for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by druggists.

"SPALDING'S GLUE," useful in every house.

THE ORDER OF THE DAY.—A general order for Sozodont. In the teeth of all opposition it has become the supreme dentrifice of the age.

No impurity can infest the teeth cleaned daily with Sozodont. Quillay, the bark of the Chilian Soap Tree, an article which possesses cleansing properties superior to those of any other known substance, is one of the ingredients of this peerless compound. Sozodont is the only dentrifice in existence in which this salubrious botanical product is incorporated.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD NEWS.

ASHEVILLE, Nov. 22, 1870.

EDITOR PIONEER:—I received on Saturday last the following cable dispatch from Hon. N. W. Woodfin, which I hope you will publish for the information of those interested in the progress of our Railroad in the mountains:

LONDON, Nov. 12.

TO CALVIN MCLOUD, Morristown, Tenn—Post to Asheville:

"All Safe. Sail to-morrow.

WOODFIN."

The above dispatch, taken in connection with his previous letters of the 3d and 7th of this month, satisfies me that he has not only secured enough money to pay off the present indebtedness of the Road but that he also has saved from the wreck a sufficient amount to insure the early resumption of work on the same.

Respectfully,

C. M. MCLOUD.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting, composed of citizens of Wake and Granville counties was held at Laws' Store on Thursday 24th November, and was organized by calling D. H. Whitfield, Esq., of Granville to the chair, and appointing J. H. Bell, Esq., of Wake as secretary.

On motion a committee of four from each of the counties represented in the meeting, was appointed to report resolutions expressive of the views and feelings of the meeting. The chair appointed to constitute the committee, Messrs. Nich. Thompson, J. W. Harris, J. B. Lassiter and Dr. Hal. Harris of Wake, and Messrs. Arthur B. Grissom, Robert Garner, Edward Howell and J. E. Turner of Granville.

The committee after consultation, reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, the 17th section of the constitution provides that no person shall be taken, imprisoned or disseized of his freehold, liberties or privileges, or outlawed, or exiled, or in any manner deprived of his life, liberty or property but by due course of law,

AND WHEREAS, Gov. W. W. Holden has arrested and imprisoned many citizens of the State, in violation of the constitution and his duty, therefore

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that he ought to be impeached by the Legislature now in session.

AND WHEREAS, The 18th section of the constitution declares that every person restrained of his liberties is entitled to a remedy to inquire into the lawfulness thereof, and to remove the same, if unlawful; and such remedy ought not to be denied or delayed,

AND WHEREAS, Chief Justice Pearson, in violation of this clause of the Constitution, and of his sworn duty, did, for a time, deny to the imprisoned and oppressed citizens of Caswell and Alamance counties, the remedy and relief guaranteed to all citizens; therefore,

Resolved, That the said Chief Justice Pearson should be impeached.

Resolved, That we take this occasion to express to the Legislature, our desire and wish for a Convention, so as to rid the State of the odious system of townships and rehash of the New York Code of Civil Procedure, and the many useless and high salaried officers now saddled upon the tax payers of the State; but not to intertere in anywise with the homestead provision, nor the rights of the freedmen before the law.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Raleigh SENTINEL for publication.

After the adoption of the resolutions, the meeting adjourned.

A National Medicine.

One can hardly pick up a newspaper or turn a street corner now-a-days that he does not find, staring him in the face, the announcement that Prof. So-and-so has just discovered a medicine which is a panacea for all the ills that flesh is, or may be heir to. These "wonderful" discoveries usually have an existence of a few months, then disappear from public notice. The reason of their sudden extinguishment is apparent. They were humbugs. At the outset all medical preparations have an equal chance for success, as all are equally unknown; but the chaff is soon winnowed from the grain by the practical test which an unprejudiced public applies to all things. There are but few preparations which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any length of time. One of the few which we have now in mind, and which has been a long time familiar to nearly every household in the land, is the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Their almost universal sale and use, and their emphatic endorsement from all portions of the country, compel the admission that they must be a specific for the ailments for which they are recommended. Letters before us attest their efficacy in diseases of the throat, bowels and liver. In that truly terrible complaint, dyspepsia, where these Bitters are manufactured, their sale for home use is immense. This fact alone speaks volumes in their favor.—Extracts from the Muscatine Courier (Iowa,) Feb. 7, 1867.

THE CIRCUS IS COMING.

COL. SIMON G. HAYS, of RALEIGH, N. C. having purchased the entire interest of Dr. JAMES L. THAYERS GREAT CIRCUS, (lately collapsed at High Point, has the pleasure of informing the citizens of Raleigh and the surrounding country that having thoroughly reorganized he will give one of his unique entertainments under his magnificent canvass at Tuckers old field on Saturday the 3rd of December. Performance to commence at 2 o'clock P. M.

The services of the following talented Artists have been secured who will certainly appear on the occasion:

MR. THOMAS G. JENKINS, the great bare back rider (champion of the world.)

MR. DAVE LEWIS, the wonder of the world (in a jangh)

MR. N. S. HARP, the orginal India rubber man.

THE DOWD BROTHERS, (of Apex) the greatest tumblers of the age.

MESSRS WYNNE and STITH, the Siberian Clowns and Acrobats.

THE TWIN BROTHERS KEUSTER, (gunsmith) and FOWLER, Blacksmith) will appear in several athletic feats.

MONS DICK WEIL, (the wild man of Borneo) the lightning leaper.

DR. BLACKNALL and COL. SAM. CARROW, the original performers on the trapeze.

I. J. YOUNG, the great American humorist.

CAPT. TIMOTHY P. LEE, the gentlemanly Ring Master and a host of other performers

COL. HAYS, will introdnce for the first time in this country his celebrated trained comic mules and "Keeper" the colored wonder who will delight the audience with their merry tricks.

COL. HAYS in his great role of the Modern Hercules will appear in the ring assisted by that wonderful wild man of Borneo, Mons. Dick Weild, and will perform the difficult feat of turning a double back somersault.

The management beg leave to state that at great expense they have secured the services of MR. JOHN J. MAGUIRE the Great Irish Comedian.

During the temporary absence of the regular Band the services of the Raleigh Brass Band have been secured.

The stock of trained horses and mules can be seen at the new Livery Sale and Exchange Stables of Messrs. Geo. W. Wynne & Co., on Morgan Street, where the public are respectfully invited to call and examine them.

NO DEAD HEADS. Revenue officers, State and City officials are requested to purchase their tickets.

RAILROAD MEETING IN CATAWBA

EDITOR SENTINEL: Dear Sir,—On the 24th inst., a number of our citizens met in the Court House in the town of Newton to express their approbation, of the projected Railroad from the pump on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad to Newton or Hickory Station in Catawba county, a notice of which appeared in the Southern Home of the 22nd ult., signed by S. X. Johnson, Thos. R. Tate, D. H. Hill and others. The meeting was duly organized by calling S. T. Wilfong to the Chair.

Upon motion, M. L. Cline and M. E. Lowrance was requested to act as Secretaries of the meeting. At the request of the Chairman, J. Hussey, Esq., in a few brief remarks, explained that the object of the meeting was to incourage the consummation of the projected Railroad as above indicated, and as preliminary to a general meeting to be held in the Court House in the town of Newton on the 1st Monday in December next, to appoint delegates to a called meeting at Col. D. A. Lowe's Store, on the 10th of December next.

Upon motion, a notice of this meeting was ordered to be published in the Southern Home, Raleigh SENTINEL and Wilmington Journal.

After which, the meeting adjourned.

SELMA, N. C. Nov. 25th, 1870.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—The enterprising little town of Selma was visited by a destructive conflagration last night about nine o'clock. The store of Messrs. W. and C. Richardson was consumed with all its contents, undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, as there had been no fire in the building after eight (8) o'clock in the morning. The loss is at least ($5,000) five thousand dollars as the firm had just put in a new, and large stock of goods. The books &c. were saved with difficulty.—These gentlemen have the sympathy of the entire community, and take this occasion to thank the citizens for their kindness and energy in saving the dwelling which was in imminent danger. They will put up a new building on the old site.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Weston failed in his walk and was compelled to yield to an overpowering desire for sleep. The march was four hundred miles in five days Weston failed on the 230th mile.

The Herald's special London dispatch says that Russia's reply is an evidence that she is not prepared to abide unequivocally by her original circular, but Gortschakoff, though he does not wish war, is averse to withdraw the circular.

The Times' special dispatch from St. Petersburg says that Russia is unprepared for war and can not be before spring. The Gazette says that Russia cannot withdraw her declaration nor leave it without practical consequences. Such a proposition from the English press, only compels her to pursue the more actively, a realization of the problem set before her. No one in Russia desires war, but all classes would consent to war rather than a humiliating retraction under threats.

Cables to private parties say that Gortschakoff's answer does not withdraw the claims and repeats the reference to the violations of the treaty. The morning papers say that the ministry will stand firm.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Tours advices up to last evening state that Gambetta has returned to Tours. Two French battallions attacked fifteen hundred Prussians entrenched with three cannon. The Prussians were routed and driven as far as Quesnet.

Balloons from Paris on Thursday represent the situation as favorable, and the public morale as satisfactory.

The guns of the besiegers are all quiet.

The Prussians are operating against Garibaldi At or their repulse at Nants, they pillaged Citenaf and concentrated at Dijon. Belesme in the department of Eure St. Arme was occupied by 20,000 Prussians on the 22nd, but they retreated towards Nogent le Rotrou.

Nothing new from the Eastern question today. The feeling in much improved.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Troops have been ordered to Tallahassee, Florida, to insure order on Tuesday next, when the vote of the State is announced.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 26.—The day has been one of excitement here. At a late hour last night, Gov. Smith and Treasurer Bingham, obtained from Supreme Court Judge, Saffold and Circuit Court Judge Feiham, an injunction restraining the presiding officer of the Senate from counting the vote for Governor and Treasurer at 1 o'clock to-day. At 1 o'clock the two Houses met in joint Convention. Mr. Barr, President of the Senate announced that he could not open and count the vote for Governor and Treasurer, but would count for the other officers. The result of the count was that E. H. Moren candidate for Lieut. Governor received forty-three hundred and seventy seven majority; J. J. Parker, Secretary of State, four thousand four hundred and fifty-nine; J. W. A. Sanford, three thousand four hundred and twenty-three. All Democrats. The President announced these gentlemen legally elected to their respective offices and ordered the returns to be sent to the Secretary of State to await judicial proceedings.

Lieut. Governor Moren proceeded to count the vote for Governor and Treasurer. The count resulted in 1,429 majority, for Lindsay, Democrat and about 2,500 majority for Grant, Democrat.

Mr. Lindsay took the oath of office as Governor and the State for a time will probably have two Governors. The Senate will recognize Smith and the House Lindsay. The matter will be in the Courts soon.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Jr., insured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, as the fact [illegible] will attest.

10,000 POLICIES,

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000,000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are as much lower, there is certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 150,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PUT A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet: Size Bale 44 feet x 20x28 ins.; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press." I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the plan upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

IN ALL FORMS OF NON-FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "Definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869 in evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Definite Dividends are not declared but Dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's Charter. CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $5,000,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000.
6. Cash payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1, 1869, was $51,621,141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division; and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000,000 greater than any other company.
